Taylor Raps Democrats
For Jump in Food Cost

HARRISBURG, Aug. 29—M. Harvey Taylor, Republican State chairman, accused the Democratic Administration of running up food prices in a speech prepared for delivery at a women's meeting in Steelton last night.

"Our Democratic friends have been gouging the patient house-wife until she is in a state of open rebellion," he said. "They have taken the pork chop from her, and now they are after the poor old fried potato."

Taylor asserted "you who have gardens will not be permitted to raise more than five bushels of potatoes next year, unless you get a special permit from the Government. Farmers will have to sell under Government permits in Government packages at Government prices."

The Republican chairman explained he recently consulted price lists of today and a year ago and found:

"Rib roast per pound—if one is able to afford that luxury—has gone up 13 to 15 cents.

"Chuck roast is 11 to 12 cents higher. "And you can no longer afford bacon with your eggs—if you can still afford the eggs."

ASTRID, BELGIAN QUEEN,
KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Meets Instant Death and King
Leopold III. Is Injured

LOST CONTROL OF CAR

LUCERNE, Switzerland, Aug. 29—(INS)—Astrid, 29 year old queen of the Belgians, was killed instantly in an automobile accident near here today, and King Leopold III., who was driving the car, was slightly injured.

Swinging along the wet pavement by the shore of Lake Lucerne, King Leopold suddenly lost control of the car. It careened into a tree, crushing the Queen's head against the trunk.

Leopold suffered slight cuts about the head.

Queen Astrid, it was revealed by friends, was an expectant mother. They already had one son and one daughter.

Vacationing here, they started out on a gay drive from Kussnacht, a resort on a small bay nine miles from Lucerne. Astrid sat beside Leopold in the front seat, with a chauffeur in the rear.

The death of the young Queen, who was a Swedish princess, was the second tragedy in the Belgian royal family in less than two years. Climbing alone in the Ardennes Mountains on February 17, 1934, Albert, war time king of the Belgians, plunged to his death.

It was just 18 months ago, Leopold's father, the late King Albert, fell to his death while climbing a mountain peak in a range of the Ardennes mountains, known as the Mars des Dames. As with his daughter-in-law, death came suddenly and accidentally. The grief Europe felt with the loss of Belgium's war time king, flamed anew with the loss of the young Queen, whose democratic demeanor and flashing smile had endeared her to the nation which became hers by marriage and adoption.

King Leopold himself, who was driving the car when the accident occurred along a slippery rain-coated road, apparently was seriously injured. The King was rushed to a hospital where preliminary examinations indicated he suffered a fracture of the jaw. He was hurried with the Queen from the seat of the low-slung powerful car which, after careening across the road, crashed head-on into a tree and then plunged into the waters of Lake Lucerne.

The body of the young Queen has been rushed to Hamlet near Lucerne where, for the past few weeks, the royal couple had been vacationing.

His head swathed in bandages and still dazed by the tragedy, King Leopold bore up bravely, but the enormity of the tragedy, following so swiftly after the loss of his father, obviously affected him.

Receives Word of Accident
As She Awaits Son

Arthur E. Howe, Jr., 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Howe, Wisconsin, and Grant avenues, Torredale, is suffering today with critical injuries received yesterday in an airplane crash at Providence, R. I.

Howe was enroute to his parents' home and his mother, president of the Torredale-Andalusia Branch of the Needlework Guild of America, was at the Camden airport awaiting his arrival.

A telegram advising of the accident was received by Mr. Howe, who was at his place of business in Philadelphia. He telephoned the airport and Mrs. Howe returned to their home where she was advised of the accident.

Joshua Crane, Jr., 37, widely known New England sportsman and pilot, was at the controls. A freak gust of wind caught the plane as it was gliding to a landing at the Rhode Island State Airport. Crane was fatally injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Howe have gone to Providence.

CONSTITUTIONS

(Oil City Derrick, August 22, 1935)

If we read the signs aright, the New Deal political strategy next year will take the form of asking Congress to submit to the various states amendments to the constitution which will not only socialize the United States but destroy the power of the Supreme Court to act upon any law passed by Congress and approved by the President.

We take it that this is the reason Congress has been held on the job all summer. The President wants this year's program out of the way with as few of his measures as possible holding over for the next session.

The amendments which shall be proposed next year will have a twofold purpose. One is to remove constitutional stumbling blocks to radical legislation which would permit the government to plan our lives as the governments of Europe plan the lives of their subjects. The other is to make votes by selling the masses the idea that only in this way can the New Deal pluck the rich for the benefit of the poor. The Supreme Court will be held up as a creature of the capitalistic system.

This means that about next December or January the issues will be outlined for the next Presidential campaign. Using the constitutional argument, the expenditure of billions of government money in various states and an enormous payroll, the New Deal Brain Trusters figure they will be invincible.

Even the danger of death or incapacity on the part of the President would not interfere seriously with their plans. Mr. Roosevelt would be given the power to name his successor, and this successor would have the power to name his successor. This would give the United States a Mussolini. This is the fascist system.

PART AND PARCEL OF THIS MOVE IS THE PLAN
OF THE NEW DEALERS TO SCRAP THE PRESENT
CONSTITUTION OF PENNSYLVANIA AND SUPPLANT IT WITH A NEW ONE, WHICH WILL GIVE THE STATE
MUCH GREATER POWER OVER THE LIVES AND FOR-TUNES OF ITS CITIZENS.

Here the principal aim sought is greater power to borrow and spend. Under the present constitution the state's borrowing power is limited to one million dollars. This safeguard is to be wiped out. The purpose of the New Dealers is to get their hands on the treasury. With unlimited money to distribute they can control the electorate. They can perpetuate their power.

Fortunately the voters of this state can upset this plan, so far as the Pennsylvania constitution is concerned, at the primaries on the 17th of next month. To the people will be submitted, at that election, the question of whether they shall or shall not change constitutions. Many specious pleas will be advanced as to why we should make the change. Voters should beware of them.

The present state constitution may not be perfect, but we have a lurking suspicion that the interests of the people are safer under it than they would be under any new one which might be adopted while the country is swamped under a wave of socialistic emotionalism.

Better play safe and vote against a change in the state constitution. Insofar as changing the federal constitution is concerned, it is going to be a tough job to get 36 states to surrender their sovereign rights to the government in Washington—and it will take 36 states to put it across.

REMOVE HOSIERY STOCK
DESPITE STRIKE PICKETS

Police and Detectives Guard
Removal of Stock Valued
At $30,000

MAY CLOSE THE PLANT

QUAKERTOWN, Aug. 29—(INS)—Caught off guard by an overwhelming police detail, pickets at the strike-closed Tockien Hosiery Company today were unable to interfere with the removal of silk hosiery valued at $30,000 from the plant store house.

Sweeping down on the mill at day-break, the police squad, composed of Sheriff Horace E. Gwinner, Bucks County, three deputy sheriffs, 10 state patrolmen and 10 New York City detectives, guarded ten New York stevedores, as they hurriedly loaded a heavy truck and drove off.

As the caravan bearing the representatives of the law arrived at the mill, a score of strikers rushed from a tent colony erected across the street from the hosiery mill. Cowed by riot clubs, the pickets refrained from violence.

Officials were fearful today, the mill, erected in 1928 at a cost of $300,000 will be shut down with a resultant loss of $3,000 weekly to 250 men and women employed in the plant.

Honors Woman Who Will Leave For Salt Lake City

Mrs. John Elmer, 592 Swain street, entertained a few friends at her home last evening in honor of Mrs. Alice Patterson, Bath street, who will leave Thursday for Salt Lake City, Utah, to make an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Terry.

The evening was spent playing pin-ochle, and three tables of players were arranged. Refreshments were served.

The guests included: Mrs. P. J. Quigley, Mrs. J. A. Fine, Mrs. John Bruden, Mrs. Elwood Gosline, Mrs. Joseph Snyder, Miss Mary Hesel, Mrs. William Ennis, Sr., Bristol; Mrs. Blanche Gilbert, New York; Mrs. Joseph Terry, Salt Lake City, Utah.

PRODUCERS' ASS'N TO BUILD $10,000 PLANT

Egg Auction Will Be Located
In The Doylestown
Annex

ORIGINAL IN THE STATE

DOYLESTOWN, Aug. 29—Work has begun on the construction of a new building for the Bucks County Producers' Co-operative Association on Swamp road and Center street in the annex, here. Plans for the building and purchase of land on which it is located call for an expenditure of approximately $10,000.

According to A. Oscar Martin & Son, the architects, the building will be 57 feet long and 36 feet wide. It will be made of concrete blocks, white washed, with gable slate roofs.

The building is to be completed by the middle of November.

When finished it will contain space for the receiving and storage of eggs in addition to six up-to-date candling booths, all on the ground floor.

A storage room located on the same floor will have a capacity of 1,000 crates.

The first floor will contain an auction room with a capacity for seating 125 people. Here the auctions will be conducted twice a week.

It will also house administrative offices, file rooms and empty crate storage chambers large enough to accommodate 3500 crates.

Shocked by Queen's Death

London, Eng., Aug. 29—The death of Astrid, Queen of the Belgians, deeply shocked the British Royal Family, to whom she was closely related, today. News was telephoned to King George in Scotland and telegraphed to Queen Mary, who was on a train traveling from Yorkshire to Scotland. The information was also given to Queen Astrid's grandfather, the Duke of Connaught, at his home near Ascot.

Belgium Grief-Stricken

Brussels, Aug. 29—The death of Queen Astrid in Switzerland today shocked all Belgium where her popularity has been growing ever since she wed Leopold, then Crown Prince, in 1926. News of the tragedy was sent to the Royal Palace here, but it was not stated whether their three children including Crown Prince Baudouin, 5 years old, had yet been informed.

Fear Lynching Attempt

Bridgeton, N. J., Aug. 29—Fearing an attempt may be made to lynch the prisoner, authorities today redoubled their guard over Romain Johnson, negro, 32-year-old convict who has allegedly confessed the gruesome murder of Mrs. Minnie Horowitz. The woman was found beaten to death Tuesday in a bedroom of her lonely farm home one mile south of here. Haggard and exhausted by 24 hours of ceaseless questioning, Johnson is quoted by detectives as shouting, "I did it, I did it."

MAY ABANDON NEW
SUPER-HIGHWAY LINK

Possibility That $500,000.00
Worth of Concrete Highway
Will Be Discarded

MOTORISTS ARE IRKED

Almost half a million dollars worth of four-lane concrete highway is slated to be practically abandoned if the State Highway Department carries out its new plan to widen and rebuild the old Lincoln Highway through South Langhorne from Janney to the Fallsington underpass, a distance of 7.6 miles, according to Frank E. Ballantyne, general manager of the Automobile Club of Philadelphia, A. A. A.

"Several years ago plans were made for a new 49-foot super highway between City Line and a new Delaware river bridge at Yardley, replacing the old Lincoln Highway route with Philadelphia-New York traffic to by-pass Trenton," Mr. Ballantyne said.

"The section between City Line and Janney has been in use some time and recently the $500,000 section has been completed from Janney to an intersection with State Route 213 just south of Glen Lake station, a distance of two and a quarter miles. No further construction was authorized because of lack of funds and uncertainty of the co-operation of New Jersey in the construction of a new bridge over the Delaware at Yardley. Since then the New Jersey Legislature has approved the building of a bridge.

"Now the Highway Department proposes to rebuild the old route keeping the new road closed and leaving it useless for all practical purposes as its only outlet is Route 213, a narrow, winding macadam road leading to Oxford Valley on the old Route 1. On this route is a bridge so narrow that two cars can scarcely pass and a grade crossing on a busy four track railroad. The road is safe for only the lightest traffic and is utterly incapable of carrying the heavy traffic of Route 1.

"The proposed reconstruction of the old route will leave untouched the principal conditions the new alignment

Smaller Cob Needed

(By "The Stroller")

A Cornwells Heights resident suffered such ill effects while enjoying his "fill" or more than his "fill" of corn on the cob, last week, that friends are inclined to think he endeavored to swallow the cob likewise.

The first ear went fine, but the second one tasted better. This continued until a choking sound ensued, whether from the fact there was room for no more corn, or that the ear just refused to go the way of the kernels.

It was no joke to the victim, however, and in spite of the fact that the near-choking occurred on Friday, he experienced a sore throat until Monday.

CASH RELIEF IS TO REPLACE VOUCHER
RELIEF IN THIS AREA

Definite Action is Taken by Relief Advisory Board

AWAITS ITS APPROVAL

Local Machinery Will Have To Be Set Up in Order To Administer It

Cash relief will replace the present system of voucher relief in Bucks County, according to action taken by the Emergency Relief Advisory Committee of Area No. 16, which includes Bucks and Montgomery counties.

The date the change is to take effect has not been fixed, pending approval of the change at Harrisburg and the time required to set up the machinery locally.

The decision of the committee, of which Harold G. Knight, President Judge of Montgomery County Courts, is chairman, was unanimous after reports were presented by Alfred Hoffmann, Willow Grove; Miss Elsie Ross, Doylestown; and Mrs. John B. Chambers, Newtown, members of the committee, who had previously been named to make a careful study of the experiences of several sections in the United States, where cash relief has been tried.

Miss Janet C. Moore, executive director of Area 16, has been instructed to notify Robert L. Johnson, State Relief Administrator, of the local committee's decision.

Adoption of the cash relief plan for Bucks and Montgomery counties has been virtually assured by Administrator Johnson, who had knowledge of the previous action of the local committee to make an exhaustive study of cash relief. Mr. Johnson expressed his eagerness to co-operate in a letter to the committee in which he wrote: "If your committee decides to have cash relief, immediate steps will be taken to institute it in your area."

Provision has been made to permit local administrators "to place or continue cases upon the order system," when it is found that a family is not capable of doing its own budgeting.

Following is the text of the decision of the local committee: "Resolved that it is the unanimous opinion of the Emergency Relief Board of Area 16 that emergency relief should be given in cash, provided that discretion should be granted to those charges with the local administration of relief to place or continue cases upon the order system."

According to reports received by the local committee, the trend is toward cash relief payment. "The reports under the cash plan as studied by the local board's committee, show that landlords have received their rents. Electric companies report no failure in the payment of bills. There is no increase in gambling or drinking. The original estimate of the misuse of cash in the case of California was five per cent. This has been reduced to less than one per cent. Clients, the investigation showed, are enthusiastic about handling of their own money. Voucher relief is reported to have a tendency to place the recipient at a purchasing disadvantage while the feeling of responsibility through the handling of funds in cash relief is considered beneficial."

Said Mrs. Alice Liveright of the FERA Administration, Washington, D. C.: "Personally, I am distinctly in favor of relief in cash rather than in kind. Cash relief to my mind maintains to the greatest extent possible the independence and individuality of the person on relief. It makes possible for him to adjust his budget so that he may take advantage of opportunities, which arise for purchasing in bulk, varying the weekly purchases of food, clothing or rent and maintain his relationship within his community on a more dignified basis."

Philadelphia has been operating under the cash relief plan since last Fall and the local board's report showed that the plan is working very successfully there.

Harold G. Knight, President of the Montgomery County Courts, who is chairman of the Emergency Relief Advisory Committee of Area No. 16, covering the two counties, today made public the appointment by Robert L. Johnson, State Relief Administrator, Continued on Page Two

WORTH ALL IT COSTS

It is estimated that 30,000,000 persons in the United States have enjoyed or will enjoy vacations averaging two weeks and that the total expenditure amounts to $5,000,000,000. That so many could afford to devote so much money to a matter largely of pleasure is a testimonial to business recovery. Railroad traffic is above the average and summer resorts are having a highly profitable season. Tourist camps have been filled to overflowing. The national parks have had more visitors than ever before. All these things are taken into account in reaching the estimate, which, of course, is nothing more than approximate since there can be no such goal as accuracy in such a matter.

That so many are able to knock off from the regular vocation and seek relaxation shows that as a people we are learning the value of a bit of leisure. We have a class which devotes itself chiefly to leisure, but the vacationists referred to are those who for the main part of the year are busily employed. The number of vacationists is all the more noteworthy since it must have included the farmers in but a small proportion and they are more numerous than any other class. The summer is the farmer's busy season and his leisure, if he has any, comes at other times. Next winter many of the tillers of the soil will hitch up the car and journey southward for a few weeks and will augment the numbers of the vacationists considerably by the year.

The vacation idea calls for the employment of many thousands who cater to the wants of vacationists. This involves business of vast magnitude in itself and it has wide ramifications. What is one's period of leisure is another's time of activity. All of us could not take vacations at once. Somebody has to stay on the job to provide for the vacationists—and take in the money the vacationists have to spend. And the latter feature is attended to with promptness.

CRUELTY IN SPORTS NAME

From persons of the humane type who constantly cry out against bull fighting on the grounds that it is an unequal contest, and cruel to the bull which participates against its will, we expect to hear strenuous objections to an equally heartless sport now practiced in Pennsylvania.

On a stream well stocked with trout, anglers are allowed to cast with barbless hooks, and catch as many as 15 fish, all but two of which must be thrown back. The fish are caught purely for the angler's amusement in catching them.

Like bull fighting, this is a one-sided sport. The fisherman enjoys it, but the fish does not. Even though the hook is barbless it can't feel any too good in a fish's mouth, and the distress incident to being reeled in and netted is enough to wreck a fish's nervous system for life.

It isn't selfishness to live as you please. You are selfish only when you make others quit living as they please to please you.

Another argument against the bonus is that it's a long time till another election.

Free people are those who are horrified by tyranny unless it is in on their side.

LANGHORNE

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Newbold have returned from a trip through New York State.

W. C. Barber, Philadelphia, was a caller in Langhorne, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin M. VanSant, Langhorne, announce the engagement

"Here! Here I am." The darkness was so profound that he could see nothing at all except the faint gleam of the pool.

"Jerry—somebody has torn off my slip. Listen. Oh, what is it?"

There came from the dark at the end of the verandah a slithering sound followed by a rustling of foliage as if a bough were being slightly shaken. Linda waited, "It's the beast that stole our clothes. It's ripped off my slip. I'm nearly naked."

Then something had plucked at him, and the impression of cold fingers passing delicately over his face was real. Worst of all was the horrid awareness of futility in the face of the dark.

To add to their bewilderment the stillness was suddenly rent by the wild mocking cry that even in the old beach had struck a chill through them. Linda shrieked again and plunged against Jerome, gripping him in the frenzy of a terrified child. He flung his arms around her and they both fell back on the chaise longue.

For a moment it seemed to Jerome that this fresh shock had driven Linda into a convulsion. She was gasping and trembling and he could hear the chatter of her teeth.

He said soothingly, "Steady, Linda. It's just another prank."

"Prank," she cried, "and who's playing it? I tell you I'm striped. He did not need to be told that. But in itself it seemed unimportant. As soon as it was light enough he meant to remedy it. They were already beyond conventionalities, as quickly happens to anybody when plunged into some terrifying crisis, shipwreck or fire, or violent accident or illness, and clothing becomes a mere superficiality of life and safety. He continued to hold and to soothe the terrified girl.

"Listen, Linda," he gave her a little shake. "All this stuff is mischievous but not dangerous. Whoever it is has a mania for clothes."

"But those horrid yells. Like devils. It pawed me softly," he said, "I felt something too," he said, "plucking at my shirt. If it had been malicious it would have tried to hurt us. Let's go inside and lock up."

They went into the house and closed the door. Jerome had left some matches on the table. Fumbling about he found them and struck one. He glanced at Linda and blew it out again.

"Well, roll up in the sleeping mat."

"Alone in that black hole? Not me."

"Nothing can get in."

"There's only the window screen and flimsy wooden shutters."

"They're heavy wooden shutters, but I'll haul in the settee and have the butt of the oar nice and handy. The next time this joker goes clothes-napping he's going to lose the screw of brains he's got left."

"Look out you don't get me in the dark. I want to live long enough to find out what this is all about—and then do plenty about it."

"That's the line. The antidote for panic is to get your mad up. If this Professor makes a fuss about my smothering his chests I'll smash him."

"We're getting the idea. Tomorrow we'll go after shoes and things. We'll find where he keeps his leeches and put the fear of Satan in the keeper."

MISS MARY SMOYER BECOMES WIFE OF WILLIAM A. MOHRE

Ceremony at Bristol M. E. Church Followed By Reception

A wedding of interest to Bristolians occurred in Bristol M. E. Church last evening at seven o'clock, when Miss Mary S. Smoyer, daughter of John Smoyer, 526 Linden street, became the wife of William A. Mohre, 613 Pond street. The Rev. Norman L. Davidson, pastor of the church, was the officiating clergyman.

The attendants of the couple were Miss Eva Smoyer, South Langhorne; and Howard Smoyer, Garfield street, sister and brother of the bride.

The bride was attired in a georgette crepe dress of navy blue tone, with hat and other accessories of a matching shade. The bridesmaid wore a gown of poudre blue silk crepe with accessories of white. Each wore a corsage of pink rose-buds.

The ceremony was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties; and a reception, to which relatives were invited, occurred at the home of the bride, where the couple will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Mohre will be at home after Labor Day.

Our stores will be Closed Labor Day September 2nd.

NOTICE IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF BUCKS COUNTY

NOTICE to John Blaker, if living, and to his heirs and legal representatives if deceased, and to Benjamin Burton, if living, and to his heirs and legal representatives if deceased, and each and every of them, and to all other persons interested.

YOU AND EACH OF YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that at a Court of Common Pleas holden at Doylestown in and for the County of Bucks on the first day of July, 1935, the Petition of Louis J. Tiedman and Irene Tiedman, his wife, was presented setting forth that James Clift executed and delivered unto John Blaker a certain Indenture of Mortgage dated April 1, 1825, recorded August 22, 1825 in Mortgage Book No. 12, page 160, for the sum of One Hundred Fifty ($150.00) Dollars, and that the said James Clift executed and delivered unto Benjamin Burton his Indenture of Mortgage dated April 1, 1833, recorded May 15, 1833, in Mortgage Book No. 14, page 422, for the sum of One Hundred Seventy-five ($175.00) Dollars, and secured upon and conveying certain tracts of land situate in the Township of Bristol, County of Bucks and State of Pennsylvania, in each of said respective mortgages particularly bounded and described.

That each of the respective mortgages were a lien upon and covered a part of the premises of the said Petitioners, Louis J. Tiedman and Irene Tiedman, his wife, whose premises are situate partly in the Township of Bristol and partly in the Township of Falls in the said County of Bucks aforesaid.

That the said Petitioners were the owners in fee simple of a portion of the land bound by the lien of each of the said respective mortgages, and that neither of the said respective mortgages had ever been assigned, and that neither of the said respective mortgages had ever been satisfied of record, but by reason of the lapse of time there exists a legal presumption that each of the said respective mortgages have been paid.

That John Blaker, the legal holder of one of the said respective mortgages, and Benjamin Burton, the other holder of one of the said respective mortgages, have been long since deceased, and that the said Petitioners do not know the names or addresses of their personal representatives, nor the heirs of either of the said decedents, if any there are or may be.

That no demand has ever been made upon the said Petitioners at any time, nor upon their predecessors in title, for any part or all of the principal sum of either of the said respective mortgages, or any interest thereon, and that no interest has been paid on either of the said respective mortgages for a period of twenty-one years last past and upwards, and praying the said Court to make an order and decree directing that notice of the facts set forth in said Petition be given by the Sheriff of the said County of Bucks to the heirs and legal representatives of the said John Blaker, and to the heirs and legal representatives of the said Benjamin Burton, if to be found in the County of Bucks, and in case the said parties cannot be found, then that notice of the facts set forth in the said Petition be given by advertisement, and upon due proof being made of the legal presumption of the payment of each of the said respective mortgages, to decree and direct satisfaction to be entered upon the record of each of the said respective mortgages, upon payment of the proper costs and charges therefor, and that such satisfactions so entered shall forever thereafter discharge, defeat and release the lien of each of the said respective mortgages against the premises of the said Petitioners, and shall bar and exclude any and all actions brought or to be brought therein, and to do such other things as are directed by the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided.

Whereupon, on the same day the said Court ordered and decreed that Horace E. Gwinner, High Sheriff of the County of Bucks, be directed to serve notice of the facts set forth in the said Petition upon John Blaker, if living, and upon his heirs and legal representatives if deceased, if any there are or may be, and upon Benjamin Burton, if living, and upon any and all heirs and legal representatives if deceased, if any there are or may be, and each and every of them, and all other parties in interest in each of said respective mortgages, and in case all or any of said parties could not be found in the said County, then the Sheriff was directed to give public notice of the facts in said Petition in the "Bristol Courier," a daily newspaper published within the County of Bucks, once a week for four weeks successively prior to the then next term of said Court to be holden at Doylestown in and for the County of Bucks on the 9th day of September 1935, requiring all or any of said parties to be and appear at said Court at eleven o'clock A. M. on the 9th day of September A. D. 1935, to answer said Petition and show cause, if any they have, why satisfaction of the said respective mortgages should not be decreed by the Court according to the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided.

YOU AND EACH OF YOU ARE, THEREFORE, NOTIFIED AND REQUIRED to be and appear at said Court to be holden on the 9th day of September 1935 to answer the said Petition and show cause, if any you have, why each of the said respective mortgages, or either of them, should not be ordered and decreed by the Court.

every day . . .

Labor Day, which we are about to celebrate, is defined as a day set aside as a legal holiday in honor of or in the interests of workmen.

Our companies devote every day to the welfare of workmen and their families.

Every day we lighten the financial burdens of those among our members who are unfortunate enough to have become ill, but who are fortunate enough to carry sick and accident policies with us.

Every day beneficiaries call at our office and receive from $50 to $250 in death benefits from each of our companies.

Every day our agents are at your service.

Every day more and more people are joining our companies. Follow their example. Join the Industrial and State Mutual today.

CATHOLIC BOYS' CLUB WINS OVER J. A. C. NINE

The Catholic Boys' Club continued on their way to the second half honors in the Bristol Junior League yesterday morning on Leedom's field when they won a slugging contest from the J. A. C. nine, 15-9.

A sixth inning rally was enough to clinch the game for the Boys' Club. Joe Conti twirled for the Catholic men and allowed the Mules 8 hits. He had eight strike-outs to his credit and issued 4 walks. Jack Spencer started on the mound for the J's but had to be relieved in the sixth by Rue.

CANCEL GAME

The Lower Bucks County League game between the Edgely Braves and the Hulmeville A. A. club, scheduled for tonight, has been cancelled. Only one game is scheduled for this vicinity, "Jimmy" Whyne's Mill Street Business Men's Club will play the Hotel Hildebrecht, of Trenton, on Leedom's field at six o'clock. Earlier in the season, the local merchants beat the Trentonians, 7-5, on the Trenton diamond.

ST. ANN'S SQUAD OUT

Candidates for the St. Ann's A. A. football team will hold their first practice of the season tonight on the Saints' field with Temporary Coach, Joseph Alta, in charge. The opening drill will take place at 6:45 o'clock. The team is open to all comers.

Bristol Man Travels Many Miles To China

Traveling half way around the world, Elwood D. Stackhouse, of Bristol, is now a member of the U. S. Marine detachment guarding the American Legation at Peking, China, according to a report from the Chinese city received at Marine Corps headquarters here.

The Bristol man's travels began when he joined the Marine Corps at Philadelphia in September, 1933, and was sent to Parris Island, S. C., for training. Later he went aboard the naval transport Henderson at Norfolk, Va., and began his voyage to the Orient.

En route he stopped for several days in Cuba and Panama, before the transport passed through the canal, eventually reaching the West Coast. From there the vessel proceeded to the Hawaiian Islands and the island of Guam to the Philippines, and thence to Shanghai, China.

While at Shanghai he was selected as a member of the group of Marines who guard the Legation at Peking, where he takes an active interest in athletics and serves as anchor man on the post tug-of-war team.

Stackhouse was born in Bristol in February, 1914. Prior to his enlistment, he made his home with his father, Joseph L. Stackhouse, 653 New Buckley street, Bristol.

AT CONVENTION

The association, known as the egg auction, was the first to be organized in Pennsylvania and since its beginning has been doing business in the basement of the Kolbe building at West State and Hamilton streets. Growing by leaps and bounds, it has become one of the largest business enterprises in Bucks county, and it is considered the outstanding in the State.

A. C. Elfman & Sons, County Seat contractors, are in charge of the general contracting work, and the plumbing and heating system will be installed by the M. A. Rufe Estate. The building will contain a steam plant with convention heating elements.

was designed to avoid the dangerous underpass at Fallsington and the heavy traffic in the business district of Trenton. Furthermore, at Fallsington, the four-lane traffic suddenly will be forced through a two-lane underpass bottleneck which will inevitably cause serious congestion and be a serious potential accident hazard.

"In short, the new plan will not avoid the hazards that the original scheme would overcome, but will result in leaving high and dry an investment of $500,000 at a time when motor taxes are mounting to unprecedented heights with no relief in sight. This sum represents the amount of revenue the State collects from the sale of 12,000,000 gallons of gasoline, or put in another way, the amount of gas tax paid by the owners of 33,000 light cars in 1934. The taxpaying public is entitled to know the reason for the change in these plans and the authorities should have ample justification for their action from both the viewpoint of economics and of public safety."

Producers' Ass'n To Build $10,000 Plant

In order to erect the building, it was necessary to buy five lots on Swamp road. Raymond S. Taylor, Newtown, is the president, and P. A. Waring, of Solebury, the secretary of the association.

The association, known as the egg auction, was the first to be organized in Pennsylvania and since its beginning has been doing business in the basement of the Kolbe building at West State and Hamilton streets.

Growing by leaps and bounds, it has become one of the largest business enterprises in Bucks county, and it is considered the outstanding in the State.

A. C. Elfman & Sons, County Seat contractors, are in charge of the general contracting work, and the plumbing and heating system will be installed by the M. A. Rufe Estate. The building will contain a steam plant with convention heating elements.

was designed to avoid the dangerous underpass at Fallsington and the heavy traffic in the business district of Trenton. Furthermore, at Fallsington, the four-lane traffic suddenly will be forced through a two-lane underpass bottleneck which will inevitably cause serious congestion and be a serious potential accident hazard.

"In short, the new plan will not avoid the hazards that the original scheme would overcome, but will result in leaving high and dry an investment of $500,000 at a time when motor taxes are mounting to unprece-
